This tasteful abortion is BESEROVIA, a Diplomacy 'sine which has to be seen to be disbelieved. It chronicles #1969BQ, which is less than can be said of any other 'sine. Subs are as indicated in #2b. Game fee is $1; games open to UCSD people only. This is Pandemonium Publication #211, and was edited and published by Rod Walker, 5058 Hawley Blvd., San Diego CA 92116; 'phone, 282-1921. Member, NFFP Games Bureau Diplomacy Division and IFW Diplomacy Society.

...AND THE SLITHY TOVES...

1. The new game has two paid members (Gullett, Wolfe). Two others are interested, but not yet paid (Hobday, Hanson). Hurry, hurry...
2. The deadline hereinafter is always 3pm on the stated day. I will not guarantee to be in my office after that time. I will accept moves by 'phone only if I have not adjudicated the moves. I will not call you; you must call me.

NEWS OF THE WORLD

VIENNA (Pandemonium Press): Our agents in the former Austrian capital report that the Express has decreed that the Imperial symbol of Austria has changed from the Double Eagle to the Spread Eagle.

ROME (Pandemonium Press): The fashion world is going wild over the new "Italian Look"—black threads attached to the wrists and ankles.

ROME (P.P.): The Turkish Ambassador to Italy, Nur-ad-din Gipetto Bey today (3 October 1904) payed his respects to His Holiness the Pope. Pope Innocent, it turns out, is both father-in-law and son-in-law to Ambassador Gipetto.

KIEL (P.P.): English sailors who participated in the recent campaign here are reported to be receiving the Order of the Half Nelson for their exploits.

CLINTY (P.P.): The latest Public Opinion Eleven-Foot Poll (for subjects you wouldn't touch with a ten-foot poll) has just been completed by the Mad Monk Ratiolists:

	Like	Hate	Vomit at the Thought of	No Opinion
Turkey Winning the Game	1%	10%	89%	0%
Russia Winning the Game	12%	47%	1%	40%
The "Italian Look"	4%	4%	4%	88%
England Winning the Game	0%	0%	1%	99%
Brown Unmarked Steamers	1%	1%	49%	49%
Beserovia	0%	100%	100%	0%
